(viii) To sell, let, mortgage, dispose of or turn to account all or any of the property or assets of the Society as may be thought expedient with a view to the promotion of its objects.

(xiv) To do all such things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them.

Provided that:-

(1) In case the Society shall take or hold any property which may be subject to any trusts, the Society shall only deal with or invest the same in such manner as allowed by law, having regard to such trusts.

(2) The Society shall not support with its funds any object, or endeavour to impose on or procure to be observed by its members or others any regulation, restriction or condition which in an object of the Society would make it a Trade Union. (3) In case the Society shall take or hold any property subject to the jurisdiction of the Charity Commissioners for England and Wales or Secretary of State for Education and Science, the Society shall not sell, mortgage, charge or lease the same without such authority, approval or consent as may be required by law, and as regards any such property the Council of Management of governing Body of the Society shall be chargeable for any such property that may come into their hands and shall be answerable and accountable for their own acts, receipt, neglects and defaults, and for the due administration of such property in the same manner and to the same extent as they would as such Council of Management or Governing Body have been if no incorporation had been effected, and the incorporation of the Society shall not diminish or impair any control or authority exercisable by the Chancery Division, the Charity Commissioners or the Secretary of State for Education and Science over such Council of Management or Governing Body, but they shall as regards any such property be subject jointly and separately to such control or authority as if the Society were not incorporated.

4. The income and property of the Society must be applied solely towards the promotion of the Objects. No part of the income and capital may be paid or transferred, directly or indirectly, to the members of the Society, whether by way of dividend or bonus or in any other way that amounts to a distribution of profit or surplus. This does not prevent the payment of:

Company Number 931434

4.1 reasonable and proper remuneration to any officer or servant of the Society, or to any member of the Society, in return for any services actually rendered to the Society;

4.2 the payment of interest at a rate not exceeding 6 per cent per annum on money lent to the Society;

4.3 reasonable and proper rent for premises demised or let by any member of the Society;

4.4 out-of-pocket expenses and interest at the rate stipulated in clause 4.2 on money lent or reasonable and proper rents for premises demised or let to the Society by members of the Council of Management or Governing Body of the Society; provided that this shall not apply to any payment to any company of which a member of the Council of Management or Governing Body may be a member, and in which such member shall not hold more than one hundredth part of the capital, and such member shall be bound to account for any share of profits he may receive in respect of any such payment.

5. The liability of the members is limited.

6. This clause applies on the winding-up or dissolution of the Society.

(a) Every Governing member of the Society undertakes, if the Society is wound-up while he is a member or within one year after he ceases to be a member, to contribute up to £10 to the costs, charges and expenses of winding up the Society and meeting the liabilities incurred while he was a member.

(b) Every Associate Member of the Society undertakes, if the Society is wound-up while he is a member or within one year after he ceases to be a member, to contribute up to 1p to the costs, charges and expenses of winding up the Society and meeting the liabilities incurred while he was a member, save in respect of an Associate Member who was a Governing member within one year of the winding up of the Society in which case the amount shall be such amount as may be required not exceeding £10.

7. If there is any property of the Society remaining after all the Society's debts and liabilities have been paid or satisfied, it must not be paid or transferred to any or all of the members of the Society. Instead it must be paid or transferred to one or more companies, organisations or institutions that exist for the purposes similar to the Objects, each of which has restrictions in its constitution or governing instrument on the distribution of profits and surpluses that are at least as restrictive as those in this Memorandum of Association. The companies, organisations or institutions will be nominated by the Council and approved by the members of the Society at or before winding up or dissolution. If the Council is unable to identify any similar companies, organizations or institutions then the surplus may be paid or transferred to any charity or charities.

We, the persons whose names are written below, wish to be formed into a company under this Memorandum of Association.

NOTICES

60. Any notice to be given under these Articles must be in writing or be given through Electronic Communications. A notice may be served by the Society upon any Member, either personally or by sending it through the post in a prepaid letter, addressed to such Member at his registered address as appearing in the register of members, or by leaving it at that address, or by giving it using Electronic Communications to any address given to the Society by the Member.

61. Any Member described in the register of Members by an address not within the United Kingdom, who shall from time to time give the Society an address within the United Kingdom at which notices may be served upon him, shall be entitled to have notices served upon him at such address, but, save as aforesaid and as provided by the Act, only those Members who are described in the register by an address within the United Kingdom shall be entitled to receive notices from the Society.
