Folk Camps Dogs Policy

Dogs are allowed on most Folk Camps sites. However, some sites do not allow dogs at all.

The following rules for dogs always apply:

1. No more than two dogs per booking group / party
2. Dogs must be always kept on a lead on the camping site.
3. All dog exercising must be outside the camp site.
- 4. Dogs must NEVER be taken into or allowed in the marquee / hall or the kitchen (guide dogs excepted).
5. Inadvertent messes must be cleared up immediately by the owner.
6. Dogs must be kept away from the hall / marquee, the entrances to the hall / marquee, workshop areas and the washing up areas (guide dogs excepted).
7. Campers must keep their dogs close to their own tent or caravan and ensure that they do not create a nuisance to their neighbours and other campers.
8. At some Folk Camps sites, the landowner may give instructions that ban the exercising of dogs in certain locations such as woods used for breeding pheasants or sheep fields. These instructions must be followed.

Some farmers reserve the right to shoot dogs that cause a nuisance on their farmland.

If any dog owner fails to control their dog and does not follow these rules, then Folk Camps reserves the right to exclude the dog from the camp site and to refuse to accept further bookings which include dogs from that dog owner.
