Folk Camps Dogs Policy

Dogs are allowed on most Folk Camps' sites. However, some sites do not allow dogs at all. (Folk Camps aims to find sites that allow dogs, but this is not always possible).

The following rules for dogs must be followed:

1. No more than two dogs per booking group.
2. Dogs must always be kept on a lead on the camp site.
3. All dog exercising must be outside the camp site.
4. Dogs must NEVER be taken or allowed in the marquee / hall or the kitchen (guide dogs excepted).
5. Inadvertent messes must be cleared up immediately by the owner.
6. Dogs must be kept away from the hall / marquee, the entrances to the hall / marquee, workshop areas and the washing up areas (guide dogs excepted).
7. Campers must keep their dogs close to their own tent or caravan and ensure that they do not create a nuisance to their neighbours and other campers.
8. At some Folk Camps sites, the landowner may give instructions that ban the exercising of dogs in certain locations such as fields or woods used for breeding pheasants or sheep fields. These instructions must be followed. Some farmers reserve the right to shoot dogs that cause a nuisance on their farmland.

If any dog owner fails to control their dog and does not follow these rules, then Folk Camps Society reserves the right to exclude the dog from the camp site and to refuse to accept future bookings which include dog(s) from that dog owner.
